COAL CREEK COMMUNITY CHORUS ARTISTIC TEAM

Stephen Ross (Coal Creek Community Chorus artistic director) is a versatile musician and educator who holds a bachelor's degree in music education from the University of Colorado Boulder. He directed the choirs at Skyline High School in Longmont from 2003 through 2015. He currently directs the Balfour Sings! choir at the Balfour Senior Living community in Louisville.

Stephen is a performer and the music director of Face Vocal Band, an all-vocal rock band from Boulder. With more than 1,800 performances over 25 years, Face performs regularly throughout Colorado and has toured across the United States, Europe, Iceland, Russia, Australia, and around the eastern Caribbean. Face has performed in many prestigious venues, including Boettcher Concert Hall (2020, 2022), Red Rocks Amphitheatre (2017, 2019, 2026), and Carnegie Hall (2022).

In addition to his music education and performance experience, Stephen has adjudicated multiple choir festivals and directed numerous honor choirs, including the Colorado Middle All State Cambiato tenor/bass choir, the Douglas County School District Men's Choir Festival, the Adams County Honor Choir, the CHSAA Jazz and Show Choir Festival, the St. Vrain High School Honor Choir, and most recently the Brighton 27J Middle School Honor Choir.

Stephen is grateful to his incredible wife, three kids, and trusty golden retriever, for their love and never-ending support.

Stella Pradeau (Coal Creek Community Chorus collaborative pianist) is a private teacher and popular choral collaborator in the Boulder area. Prior to the CCCC, Stella was the primary collaborative pianist for Cantabile, a Boulder-based auditioned choir. She is currently the collaborative pianist for Balfour Sings! in Louisville. Stella is a graduate of the University of Colorado where she studied with pianists Angela Cheng and Alvin Chow and completed her master's degree in piano performance. While at CU, Stella was a graduate assistant and winner of the Norris Piano Award.
